Beware!
Beware of the man who talks of the "solemn truth." Truth wears many colored and joyous rainment; she of the mournful hue is hypocrisy.—Life.
My carpentry and cabinet shop is now located across the street from Nisbett's Barn, where I may be found ready to do any work in my line.

Cedar Grove

From 1st page later went to Mr. Sweeney, the man who has come in our midst in order that he might let his herd of thirty five Jersey cow get a taste of our nutritious grass. Mr. Sweeney is going to begin making cheese for sale as soon as the cheese press which he has ordered arrives. While there he gave us all the milk we could drink and all we could carry away, inviting us back every time we got out.

Wednesday and Thursday we fasted for the picnic which was given at Goodners fine well in the edge of the foothills. Friday found us at the picnic grounds waiting with the eagerness of one much younger for the table to be spread in order that a fast of two days might be broken and anyone who saw how the chicken, ham, cake and pie disappeared at our end of the table might have thought it was a fast of two months instead of two days. There were about fifty persons at the dinner and from the things that were served no one would have suspected that we were in a land that had been suffering from a two year's drouth. On Saturday we did what the bear does through the whole winter and when Sunday dawned we went forth to hear words spoken by a follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene and were ready to accept any invitation to any dinner where we might be asked. And in this we were not disappointed for at the request of Mrs. W. S. Buckner we went to her home for dinner in order that the chicken which was prepared for the preacher might not want for a consumer. 'Tis needless to say it did not want. We went to preaching again in the afternoon and receiving a similar request from Mrs. Perser and while the preacher was making some calls we hurried to the house that we might take a rest and be ready to compete with him in the line of eating. After eating more than he did we hastened home singing "Eat and the World is Yours" and did not go to church at night for an invalid should above all things keep regular hours. Now kind reader of the Cedar Grove items we have written the above for you and please do not complain after this that you do not see our notes every week for we are at heart very timid and it pains us to write of ourselves and our neighbors are so quiet and busy that they haven't time to make any sews.

For soreness of the muscles whether induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent.
This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases rheumatism. Sold by ALL DEALERS.

'Tis better to avoid legal difficulties than to get out, after once in, see Jennings, the attorney, and keep out.

"Title Talks"
The Business of Abstracting
The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.
It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.
PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.
Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.
There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.
